CANTIERE
DELLE MARCHE

M/Y
GRANIL 2014

Not just a yacht. A new way to explore the world.

SET SAIL WITH M/Y GRANIL

Step aboard M/Y GRANIL, a 26.1m Darwin 86 with explorer DNA and a rugged charm that sets her apart.

Built in Italy by Cantiere delle Marche and designed by Jonathan Quinn Barnett, she combines steel-hulled strength, high-volume comfort (203 GT), and timeless styling.

Accommodating up to 8 guests in 4 cabins, she offers generous outdoor living spaces and the autonomy for long-range cruising.

Designed for those who seek comfort with character, she invites you to slow down, disconnect, and explore the world differently — from the peaceful privacy of your own yacht.

WHY CHARTER M/Y GRANIL ?

M/Y Granil was designed for long stays at sea, far from the crowds and close to what truly matters. Her explorer profile is not just aesthetic — it reflects her essence: a yacht built to go further, stay longer, and offer a more grounded, authentic charter experience.

With a steel hull, long-range autonomy, and discreet elegance, she offers a different kind of luxury — one that favours space, silence, and slow cruising.
